THE INSURANCE ACT AND THE DUTY OF FAIR PRESENTATION

The Insurance Act provides clarity around what information a purchaser of insurance has to provide to the insurer, which of their staff is responsible for doing that and to whom they have to provide it. The new duty is now described as a 'duty of fair presentation', effectively requiring non-consumer policyholders to undertake a reasonable search of information available to them, and defining what a policyholder knows or ought to know. It is important to note that 'entering into an insurance contract' includes not only the main policy and each renewal of it, but any variations or amendments. Each time a contract is varied, the duty arises afresh in relation to that variation.

Fair Presentation and Material Circumstances

Before the insurance policy takes effect you have a duty to make a fair presentation of the risk to be insured under the insurance policy.

A fair presentation of the risk is one:

- which;
 - a) discloses to the Insurer every material circumstance which the proposer knows of or ought to know of, or failing that;
 - b) disclosure which gives the Insurer sufficient information to put the Insurer on notice that it will need to make further enquiries for the purposes of revealing those material circumstances; or
- disclosure which would be reasonably clear and accessible to the Insurer; and;
- in which every material representation as to a matter of fact is substantially correct, and every material representation as to a matter of expectation or belief is made in good faith.

The proposal form will form the basis of a contract between you and the Insurer. Inaccuracies or misrepresentations could lead to the policy being voided, and/or a claim being refused. If you have any doubt whether particular information or a material circumstance is relevant to Insurer's ability to underwrite your application for insurance, you should declare the information as soon as possible. A material circumstance is one that would influence the Insurer's decision as to whether or not to agree to insure you. If you are in any doubt as to whether a circumstance is material, you should immediately disclose it to the Insurer.

Remedies

Importantly, the Act introduces a new system of proportionate remedies where the duty to make a fair presentation has been breached. The ability to avoid will be retained in some cases where the insured breaches the duty to make a fair presentation in relation to disclosure/misrepresentation – see brief details below of how Remedies will apply.

Remedies for Material Non-Disclosure or Misrepresentation

Consequences of a deliberate or reckless breach may be:

- a) the insurer may avoid the contract and refuse all claims; and
- b) need not return any of the premiums paid

For example, an insured deliberately conceals known and material information from its presentation of the risk and does not even provide sufficient information to put the insurer on enquiry, making it an unfair presentation. This entitles avoidance but with no obligation to return premium.

Proportionate Remedies; for non-deliberate or reckless breaches

1. If the insurer would not have entered into the contract on any terms: the insurer may avoid the contract and refuse all claims but must in that event return the premiums paid.
2. If the insurer would have entered into the contract but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium): the contract is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms if the insurer so requires, even if the insured would never have accepted such terms.
3. In addition, if the insurer would have entered into the contract but would have charged a higher premium (whether the terms relating to matters other than the premium would have been the same or different): the insurer may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim.

In sub-paragraph (3) above, 'reduce proportionately' means that the insurer need only pay on the claim X% of what it would otherwise have been under the terms of the contract (or, if applicable, under the different terms provided for by virtue of paragraph 2, because 2 and 3 can apply together). The calculation is as follows:

$$X = \frac{\text{Premium actually charged}}{\text{Higher Premium}} \times 100$$

Insurers Remedies for Fraudulent Claims

The Act provides the insurer with clear statutory remedies when a policyholder submits a fraudulent claim. If a claim is tainted by fraud, the policyholder forfeits the whole claim, they cannot recover the part of the claim that would genuinely have been payable.

The Act also provides that the insurer may refuse any claim arising after the fraudulent act and can serve notice that it is treating the contract as terminated from the date the offence was committed. However, previous valid claims arising prior to the fraudulent act are unaffected.

The insurer need not return premium following notice of termination based upon the submission of a fraudulent claim.

If you need further clarification on the Insurance Act 2015 please do not hesitate to contact your Broker.

Guide to Completing this Proposal Form

When submitting this proposal form to your Broker or to The PI Desk, please make sure 'YOU' ('you' means the proposer/the firm & its staff entitled to indemnity under this insurance contract) answer all questions fully leaving no blank spaces (if necessary comment as N/A, 'not applicable' or 'none'). If the form is not satisfactorily completed we will not provide any terms but may make further enquiries of you or will automatically decline.

If there is insufficient space to complete all answers, please continue at the end of the form or provide additional information on the firms headed paper. Providing as much information as possible will help underwriters to understand the business and enable Insurers to offer terms quickly. Failure to provide underwriters with relevant information in an appropriate manner may adversely influence the ability of Insurers to offer suitable terms.

The form must be signed and dated by a Director, Partner or Principal or an identified Officer of the proposing entity.

Insurance coverage is not effective until the underwriters and/or Insurers have underwritten and accepted this proposal form, any subjectivities have been satisfied and the terms (or special terms) offered to the proposer have been accepted in writing.

If the proposer has not been trading for at least 3 years in this profession, please enclose CV's of all Directors, Partners and/or Principals. If the proposer is a new start-up please provide full details of past experience, qualifications along with the CV's.

Where available, email addresses, web site addresses, brochures, the proposer's standard contract conditions and/or agreements should be provided to assist the underwriting process.

Claims and/or Claims Circumstances

If the proposing firm has received any complaint(s) or claim(s) or is aware of any circumstance(s) that may give rise to a claim please provide full details and forward a complaints/claims log in a durable format which has been fully completed; is up to date and which should incorporate all complaints/claims from inception of the business. Please also include any complaints/claims notified to any predecessor firm and/or whilst conducting business for or on behalf of any other firm.

Professional Indemnity (PI) policies respond on a claims-made basis, which means that cover is only provided for matters arising where Professional Indemnity Insurance is in force at the time of the notification of a complaint or claim to Insurers. Where a retroactive date is noted on the policy certificate/schedule, then no cover is provided for any matter arising from business conducted prior to the retroactive date. If a PI policy is allowed to lapse at renewal or mid-term due to unpaid premiums then cover is automatically cancelled and no cover is provided in any event.

Please note that Professional Indemnity Insurance schedules/certificates are issued as annual contracts and you cannot cancel the Insurance mid-term unless specifically agreed by Underwriters.

New Business Start Up Venture

If this proposal form relates to a new business startup, please complete the questions by giving your best estimated information for your first year of trading. When estimating your projected fee income, we recommend that you provide a realistic estimate of what you think is achievable based on your business plan. If you exceed your projections the policy cover/limits can be amended.

Retroactive Cover

If this is the first time you are submitting a proposal to The PI Desk, it is very important that you provide details of any retroactive date applying to your business. Where a retroactive date is stated on your expiring policy schedule, this will be applied on the quotation document and thereafter the policy schedule. In this event, the policy will only provide indemnity for claims arising from activities/work declared to the Insurer and which has been undertaken on or after the retroactive date shown. It is your responsibility to ensure that there is no work or liabilities arising from work undertaken prior to the retroactive date which needs to be covered under your policy.

Predecessor Companies and/or Partners, Principals Previous Businesses

If cover is required in respect of liabilities arising out of predecessor companies or any partners, principals previous businesses, please include full written details within the proposal form. If there is insufficient space to provide this information, please include an additional page, covering letter or email with full details.

Limits of Indemnity

You must arrange and maintain a limit of indemnity that is adequate to meet your regulatory requirements and any claims that may be brought against you both now and in the future. If you are subject to a minimum requirement by your professional body you must not take this as being adequate and the level of cover should meet the protection requirements of you and your business. We can provide quotations for any limit you request you will not accept any responsibility for the choice you make. If you are in any doubt as to what limit of indemnity will meet your business needs then please discuss this with your broker.

If you require any assistance in completing this form please contact your Insurance Broker in the first instance.

Please note that we will communicate with you preferably by email so please provide a valid and regularly used email address.

Since an Insurance Contract is based upon the Duty of Fair Presentation, it is important that those seeking Insurance should provide full disclosure of any material circumstance to Insurers and that any changes to this information should be updated throughout the period of insurance. The Courts will find a circumstance to be 'material' where it would affect the judgement of a prudent Insurer as to whether or not to accept the risk at the particular terms offered. You are reminded that if you are in doubt whether or not any circumstance is material we recommend that you disclose the information to Insurers.
